STOLEN JEWELRY FOUND IN YARD

Three Rings Belonging to Mrs. George Reichle Found in Neighbor's Yard after having been Missed for Many Months.

Three stolen rings, one a wedding ring, were found by Mrs. Craig Geiselman and Mrs. George Reichle, of West Middle street, in the former's yard on Wednesday. The jewelry belonged to Mrs. Reichle from whom it had been stolen last October and who had given up all hope of its ever being found again.

On Wednesday morning Mrs. Geiselman, who lives next to the house which Mr. and Mrs. Reichle occupied before moving to their present home, was working in her yard cleaning things up about her flowers. She suddenly noticed an object shining brightly in the ground and upon further examination recognized it as one of Mrs. Reichle's rings. She kept on a little farther and found another.

Word was sent to Mrs. Reichle of the find and she went to the house, scarcely believing that the news of the good fortune could be true. She found, however, that the rings were her own and in the evening went back in the hope that the third one, her wedding ring, might also be found. After a brief search it, too, was found. One of the other rings contained a large pearl and the other an emerald.

The three rings were missed by Mrs. Reichle about two weeks before moving last October and no trace of them had ever been learned. It is now believed that the thief became fearful of capture or else conscience-stricken soon after getting possession of the ill-gotten property and tossed it over the fence into the Geiselman yard where the rings lay for almost six months before they were discovered.

JUDGE SWOPE ON ROAD CASE

Judge Swope in the case of Stouffer and the supervisors of Bethel township vs. William N. Stetler, bill in equity, filed his opinion continuing the preliminary injunction granted October last, in Fulton County Court this week.

The court held that the use of the defendant's heavy traction engine on the state roads amounted to a nuisance on the parts of the road that were recently finished and continued the injunction until final hearing. The court found all the facts in favor of plaintiff, but held that there was not evidence enough to show that the old state road was damaged.

The injunction case started some months ago when the defendant, William Stetler, operated and drove a traction engine over a portion of new state road, using it for the purpose of hauling lumber and railroad ties to market.

The trips over the road were made every two weeks, and the load in weight amounted to about fourteen tons, carried on four or five narrow tread wagons.

John N. Bailey, Sr., died about midnight Wednesday at his home on North Washington street from dropsy, aged 75 years, 5 months and 17 days.

For many years Mr. Bailey was engaged in railroading, being employed in York County on the Northern Central. Later he was with the Gettysburg and Harrisburg, his home at that time being Pine Grove Furnace where he was also a constable. About 1888 he moved to Gettysburg and had resided here ever since. ## MEMORIAL FOR FATHER BRADY

At a meeting in Baltimore, at the home of Mrs. Frank E. Brown, plans were discussed by women prominent socially in that city for the fair and bazaar to be held at Loyola College in April. The sum of $15,000 is expected to be raised, and together with $10,000 which a committee of men of the city is raising, was to have been presented to Rev. F. X. Brady, S.J., the twenty fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood in August. Father Brady died suddenly last week, and $25,000, and perhaps $35,000, will be raised as was intended, but the entire amount will be used as a memorial to the priest.

Mrs. Brown stated that medals will be struck off soon, the bust of Father Brady being on one side and a photo of Loyola College on the other. These medals will be sold at the fair.

The men's committee started out to solicit personal subscriptions to raise the $10,000, which the men have promised to raise and to contribute to the $25,000 memorial fund to Father Brady.

THE SMART SET

A theatrical event of more than commonplace importance is underlined for the night of March 29, at Walter's Theatre, where the far famed "Smart Set" Company in the latest three act musical comedy "George Washington Bullion" will be the next attraction. Probably no production of its kind has been mounted with such care and skill or given such pretensions attention in the way of scenic investiture, costumes, etc., as this particular aggregation of colored stars. Salem Tutt Whitney is the principal comedian. He is supported by forty talented people.

$150,000 PLANT BRINGS $1500

According to an Atlantic City dispatch, Griscom left the shore with his father, after he had his whiskers removed as a disguise. Ben Lester returned from Bristol, and was met at the train by his father, Henry Lester. On the way home they met Luther Lowe and Robert Lester and a quarrel followed.

Luther Lowe drew his gun and fired at Henry Lester, the ball lodging in Lester's right side. Ben Lester whipped out his gun and killed Lowe and Robert Lester before they could fire again.

PACKERS MUST STAND TRIAL

Indicted Meat Men Lose Their Appeal.

SAYS EVIDENCE IS NEW

Court Overrides Plea of Immunity Founded on Previous Decision and Says Conspiracy Continues.

Chicago, March 23.—The indicted Chicago packers lost their fight against going to trial on indictments secured several months ago.

Judge Carpenter, in the United States district court, overruled their demurrer and held that the immunity granted by Judge Humphrey, of the federal circuit court, in 1906 did not apply to the present charges, which, he held, were based on evidence not included in the Humphrey decision.

In brief, the packers' position was that any conspiracy that might have existed was the plotting prior to Judge Humphrey's immunity decision, and that this immunity extended over all future time, so long as the acts covered by the 1906 decision remained the same.

Judge Carpenter ruled that the immunity granted then was only for acts prior to the date of the indictment, and could not pertain to any unlawful act after that time.

Evidence given by the packers before the grand jury, he said, could not relate to that which had not occurred, and hence could have no future application.

Conspiracy Continues.

As to the contention that the conspiracy ended with the first plotting, he ruled that so long as the acts complained of continued the conspiracy remained in effect.

Unlawful acts growing out of the conspiracy and occurring after the indicted men had testified before the grand jury were new and separate offenses and subject to the operation of law.

In addition the court held the offenses admitted before the grand jury by the packers prior to their immunity were none the less criminal in themselves, and said the admissions could be used in prosecutions predicted on a continuation of the offenses.

Judge Carpenter denied the government's motion to strike the packers' pleas in abatement from the record, and instructed the government to reply to the pleas. He said a demurrer to the pleas might be filed, however.

The packers were instructed to be in court March 27 and report what action they proposed to take. They were given twenty days in which to file exceptions, the order given being without appeal.

The Men Indicted.

Indicted packers are Louis Swift, Edward F. Swift, Francis A. Fowler and Charles H. Swift, of Swift & Co.; Edward Tilden, president of the National Packing company; J. Ogden Armour, Arthur Meeker, Thomas J. Connors, of Armour & Co., and Edward Morris and Louis Heyman, of Morris & Co.

The chief object of the government's attack is the National Packing company, of which the indicted men are directors or otherwise interested, directly or indirectly.

It was organized in 1903 with a capital of $15,000,000. It is chiefly a holding company, and owns or controls, according to the government's claim, twenty-one other companies.

Falling Slate Kills Nine.

Pittsburg, March 23.—Nine men were killed in the Hazel mine of the Pittsburg and Buffalo Coal company, at East Canonsburg. They were being taken to their rooms in a remote part of the mine when a mass of loose slate in the roof fell, filling one car in which there were ten men. The uninjured man was riding at the end of the car and escaped unhurt.

Eight Years for Child's Assailant.

Reading, Pa., March 23.—Leonore Bernardino was found guilty before Judge Edlich in criminal court on the charge of criminally assaulting nine-year-old Cora DeBaldi and was sentenced to eight years at hard labor in the Eastern penitentiary. The accused is twenty-seven years of age, and is an Italian.

Colorado for Income Tax.

SMALLPOX AT HARRISBURG

Thirteen Cases and Rooms in Capitol Are Being Fumigated.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 23.—Harrisburg has a smallpox scare, thirteen cases of the disease having developed since the present session of the legislature.

One of the patients was engaged at the capitol as telegraph operator and came daily in contact with legislators and others who sent messages a week before he was stricken. Though the local board of health and the state department of health were convinced that he did not have smallpox until he had given up his work at the capitol, they have taken no chances. Both of the small rooms which the operators of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies use on the house side at the capitol have been fumigated as well as the offices of both corporations in the central part of the city.

STOLE SCHOOL FUNDS

Oil City Man Gives Himself Up to New York Police.

New York, March 23.—Ferdinand P. Kay, treasurer of the Oil City, Pa., school board, walked into the Church street police station and asked to be locked up.

"I've blown in $600 of the funds of my school board," he said, "and am now down and out. I might as well give myself up." He was taken to the Tombs police court and arraigned before Magistrate Freschl. He said he had no excuses, and the court committed him to the Tombs, pending the arrival of the sheriff from Oil City.

BANK TELLER SHORT $45,000

Manipulated the Books For Over Ten Years.

Evansville, Ind., March 23.—John Blauth, teller and book president of the Evansville Trust and Savings company of this city, has been found to be short in his accounts.

It is indicated as a result of work of state bank examiners that the shortage may reach about $45,000. An officer of the bank admitted this amount might be from $35,000 to $38,000. The examination has not been completed.

Blauth, the book president and teller, who is 33 years old and well connected, received $1000 a year in salary. He was under a $5000 bond. It is said he lived at the rate of $3000 to $4000 a year. In the ten years that he was manipulating the records, Blauth never took a vacation, was never absent from the banking room a day when the company's rooms were open and never went to lunch, and never permitted the books to be out of his possession until they were closed for the day.

ONLY ONE BEST

Gettysburg People Give Credit Where Credit is Due.

People of Gettysburg who suffer with sick kidneys and had backs want a kidney remedy that can be depended upon. The best is Doan's Kidney Pills, a medicine for the kidneys only, made from pure roots and herbs, and one that is backed by cures in Gettysburg. Here's Gettysburg testimony:

Mrs. H. H. Ridinger, 25 Breckenridge street, Gettysburg, Pa., says: "I can endorse Doan's Kidney Pills just as highly today as I did two years ago, when I publicly told of their merits. A member of my family was afflicted with backache and at night often had to get up and sit in the chair. The kidneys were weak and there were severe pains throughout the body. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally procured at the People's Drug Store and they brought relief from the first. As their use was continued, a great improvement was noticeable. I was led to try Doan's Kidney Pills by this person's experience and I am glad to say that I received relief from disagreeable symptoms of kidney trouble that had clung to me for some time. I cannot give Doan's Kidney Pills more praise than they deserve."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Turning the Tables.

The bridegroom and his bride were starting on their honeymoon. Just as they had taken their seats in the train one of the bridegroom's chums came hastily along to bid him goodby.

As the young husband extended his hand the friend snatched a handkerchief from his wrist. The groom had been expecting a trick of some kind, and before the practical joker could play a similar trick on the bride he found the other handkerchief snatched around his own wrist. He was chained to the happy bridegroom himself!

"That's a good one against me, Harry," he said, with a sickly smile, "but I shall have to ask you to come to the door with me and get the key for these things. A man on the platform has it."

Just then the whistle sounded, and the train started off, and it made no stop for the next fifty miles. Before that, however, the porter, with the aid of a file, succeeded in separating the "prisoners."

The joker meanwhile had to pay full fare both ways.

Horse Notes.

One seldom sees a vicious horse that is bad by nature. He is usually spoiled by his trainer in youth.

With the winter letting up of work, let up on heavy feed. Like men, horses doing little should eat little.

In a horse action should be light, free, easy and straight. Reject a horse that crosses his legs in walking or trotting.

Horses with tender feet need lots of attention. It should be remembered that a horse can do no more than his feet will stand.

In the purchase of a new horse always purchase a mare. She will raise you some colts, which will increase the farm profits.

If a young horse breaks his halter at the first trial he is pretty sure to be a puller the rest of his life unless broken at the very start.

Keep the Separator Clean.

The separator is often the cause of poor butter in the winter. The bowl of the separator collects most of the filth that finds its way into the milk, and when it is left without washing for several days it becomes very foul. None of us would think of drinking water that had passed over such a layer of filth; neither should we be willing to eat the butter that had been so contaminated. The separator should be washed and scalded at least once daily throughout the winter. The milk in it may not sour, but it gets dirty, because in the winter more dirt and manure particles get into the milk from the cow, and this foreign matter is mostly left in the separator.

The Profitable Cow.

A cow must produce about 4,000 pounds of milk and 100 pounds of butter fat to pay for her feed and labor. This is the dead line: Five thousand pounds milk, $10 profit; 8,000 pounds milk, $40 profit—four times as much. Ten cows averaging 8,000 pounds of milk are as profitable as forty cows producing 5,000 pounds. The cost of feed increases but $35 per cow, from 2,000 to 10,000 pounds of milk given, yet the income increases $115, or over three times as rapidly.—Professor W. J. Fraser, University of Illinois.

Warm the Water For Cows.

The right way to water cows in winter is to keep the water before them in the stable. If you turn them out in the cold the strong will get all they want and the meeker ones will go without. Besides, the good dairy cow will be chilled by the change and will refuse to drink what she needs.

The trouble with most prohibitive or restrictive laws affecting the conduct of people is that their enactment does not change desire or will, but merely represses it. It is on this account that those regulations are most effective which are largely educational and furnish new interests and new aims—that is, furnish new channels for the operation of the energy and will.

An observation made by a syndicate writer the other day was to the effect that weeds require poor land to do well. Probably what the writer meant was that weeds would flourish where some grasses and cultivated plants would not; yet, other conditions being equal, the richer the land the more rank weeds will grow, as they take from the soil in the main the same elements as do other crops.

TAFT END WAR SCARE

Assures Japan's Ambassador of Our Goodwill.

SAYS RUMORS ARE BASELESS

President Says Reports of Trouble With Japan Are Ridiculous and Unwarranted.

Washington, March 23.—President Taft squelched the Japanese "war scare." At the request of the president, Baron Uchida, the Japanese ambassador, called at the White House after luncheon, and in a long talk with Mr. Taft was assured that there was no foundation for the reports that this government, in ordering the troops to Texas and the Mexican border, had one eye directed across the Pacific.

Primarily, the president called in the Japanese ambassador to congratulate him upon the consummation of the negotiations for the treaty of commerce and navigation between the United States and Japan. The formal exchange of treaties between the two nations would be made on April 4. The president told the Japanese ambassador that never, so far as his knowledge permitted him to speak, had the relations between the United States and Japan been more friendly.

Jap War Talk Ridiculous. The president told callers that he was very much surprised when he returned from his southern vacation to find reports of trouble with Japan flying through the country. The president told his visitors that such reports were most ridiculous and unwarranted.

The Mexican tangle was taken up by the cabinet. It was the first meeting of the president's official family in two weeks, but other business was of secondary importance compared to the discussion of the Texas manoeuvres and the situation in the republic south of the Rio Grande.

It was decided at the cabinet meeting that it is now time for this government "to stand pat." Affairs in Mexico and in Texas just at present are in status quo, and no further demonstration of any kind is contemplated. The administration advisers feel that there is nothing that this government can do at present, and that it is best that Mexico be left entirely free to see if she cannot work out her own salvation.

Expect Peace in Mexico. There was a feeling among some members of the cabinet at least that the two factions in Mexico will get together, despite the announcements to the contrary of the insurrecto juntas in various cities in the United States.

There was also expressed a belief that President Diaz and his government are not in such bad shape as has been reported. Notwithstanding the belief, there is great interest in official circles as to who might succeed Diaz. There is little doubt that Washington was inclined to look with favor for a time upon Finance Minister Limantour, but since the minister gave out interviews criticising the United States for attempting to "coerce" Mexico by sending the troops to Texas his stock has fallen considerably here.

CAT FINDS $875

Loses Mouse, But Catches Money in Hollow Footstool.

Port Plain, N. Y., March 23.—A cat chased a mouse under a footstool in the home of Henry Karg. The cat squeezed part way under the stool, then thrust its paw into a hole in the bottom of the stool.

Presently down came the paw without the mouse, but with a $50 bill sticking to one of the claws. The members of the Karg family at once suspended housekeeping to explore the hole in the footstool.

In all $875 was found stowed away in the stool, which had been knocking around the house ever since the death of Grannie Kark. She was known to be of a saving disposition, but she died so suddenly she got no chance to reveal where she had stored her hoard.

Part of the treasure trove is to be spent on a monument to grannie with a carved footstool on it.

HITCHCOCK TO WED

Postmaster General to Marry Miss Southernland, Washington Says.

Washington, March 23.—Postmaster General Hitchcock is about to forsake bachelorhood and get married, according to reports which are being gossiped about among the "400."

Intimate friends of the postmaster general are expecting the announcement of his engagement to Miss Mary Southernland, daughter of Admiral and Mrs. Southernland. Miss Southernland belongs to the most exclusive circles of Washington society, and her most intimate friends are Miss Helen Taft and her two cousins, the Misses Anderson.

Miss Southernland is a tall, striking brunette. Mr. Hitchcock is the only bachelor in the cabinet.

TAFT SENDS SYMPATHY TO DR. WASHINGTON

Terms Attack Either Insane or Vicious.

New York, March 23.—Dr. Boogher T. Washington, whose alleged assailant, Albert Ulrich, was held for trial on an assault charge, was still at the Hotel Manhattan, recovering from the effects of the injuries he sustained.

Dr. Washington received a letter from President Taft, in the president's own handwriting, which read:

"My Dear Dr. Washington: I am greatly distressed at your misfortune, and I hasten to write you of my sympathy, my hope that you will soon recover from the wounds inflicted by insane suspicion or viciousness, and of my confidence in you, in your integrity and morality of character and in your highest usefulness to your race and to all the people of this country."

"It would be a nation's loss if this untoward incident in any way impaired your great power for good in the solution of one of the most difficult problems before us."

"I want you to know that your friends are standing by in every trial, and that I am proud to subscribe myself as one."

AIM TO SAVE $100,000 A YEAR

Palmer Heads Democratic Committee to Prune House Expenses.

Washington, D. C., March 23.—Under the present appropriation for the house there will be places paying annually $744,000 in salaries awaiting bestowal upon partisans of the Democrats.

But a special sub-committee of the committee on ways and means, headed by A. Mitchell Palmer, of Pennsylvania, is trying to figure out a method of curtailment of this huge salary roll.

Mr. Palmer and his two colleagues are convinced that at least $100,000 can be saved by doing away with useless jobs.

Editors May Fight Duel.

New Orleans, La., March 23.—In the issue of the Bee, a French daily paper, its editor, Armand Capdeville, challenges to a duel M. De Baroncelli, editor of the Wasp, a weekly. "You must either retract your remarks or meet me in a combat with arms," is the substance of the challenge. Capdeville, it is said, became offended at editorial comment in the Wasp, which he regarded as reflecting upon the quality of French used by the editor of the Bee.

Prison for Oleo Men.

RAIN OF SHELLS SINKS TEXAS

Old Battleship Was Riddled by Heavy Fire.

A SPECTACULAR EXPERIMENT

Shells Passed Completely Through Her in Test of Projectiles and Armor.

Washington, March 23.—The secretary of the navy and members of his official party who observed the sinking of the antiquated battleship San Marcos, formerly the Texas, in the mud of Chesapeake bay, while at the mercy of the experimental fire of the formidable modern battleship New Hampshire, returned to Washington.

Gaping holes in her port side and two jagged openings in her forward armor, where shells passed completely through her, showed how she succumbed. Part of both her fighting masts were shot away and her deck was a clutter of wreckage.

These marksmanship experiments, testing on the one side the modern big guns and projectiles and on the other the armor of the San Marcos is of an old type, were conducted with almost uncanny secrecy. No one was permitted to approach the San Marcos, except the official observers and one or two naval officers and officials. The broadsides delivered by the battleship New Hampshire at varying distances of from six to seven and one-half miles were considered remarkable by ordnance officers. More than one-third of all the shots were said to have gone true, although no official statement was given out.

After the seventh broadside the Texas was plainly in distress. The two naval tugs that lay alongside the monitor Tallahassee, on which were stationed the naval observers, raced to her assistance. Secretary Meyer ordered out his launch.

The shells apparently had set the vessel afire, for smoke was seen over the side and the engines were set to work pumping. The San Marcos also had been driven out of broadside range by the force of the New Hampshire's shells, and the tugs straightened out for her further ordeal. Twice afterward shells set the bulk afire.

These are some of the things that Secretary Meyer saw when he boarded the San Marcos between volleys.

The dummies representing sailors in the fighting top of the ship unscathed, in spite of the great number of volleys fired at the ship. This was a tribute to the excellence of the gun pointers' work, as they were ordered to confine their fire to the hull and turrets.

A raging fire inside the ship caused by the explosive shells which penetrated her sides made it impossible for the observers to go below the main deck to ascertain the damage.

A shell somewhat broken inside of the conning tower, whose 9-inch steel wall it had pierced on one side. This was not an explosive shell.

A number of holes clear through the hull from one side to the other, the greatest damage being done on the farthest side of the ship. None of these holes, however, were through the 11-inch armor belt.

Some dead animals and chickens killed by the interior explosions. Some of the animals, however, were unharmed.

A cat walked quietly out of one of the turrets, whose base had been smashed by a 12-inch shell.

The further experiments to be made with the ship will be confined to attacks on the armor belt and turrets. No effort will be made to raise the San Marcos. It would cost several hundred thousand dollars to float the ship and restore her to her original condition and she is not worth it.

Tablet Dedicated to Patrick Henry.

Richmond, Va., March 23.—In historic St. John's Episcopal church, where Patrick Henry delivered the great oration to the second revolutionary convention of Virginia, March 22, 1775, and made the famous declaration: "Give me liberty or give me death!" Virginia paid tardy acknowledgment to his memory by unveiling a bronze tablet. State officials and Thomas S. Henry, of San Antonio, Texas, a great-grandson, who resembles the famous statesman, participated in the ceremonies.

MILK FEVER TREATMENT.

Proper Method of Injecting Air Into the Cow's Udder.

The air treatment for milk fever is a simple one. The apparatus manufactured by several companies makes it easy to inflate the udder with air and is nothing more or less than a bicycle pump modified, of course, to do this work to better advantage, says Hoard's Dairymen. A bicycle pump may be used in the absence of the pump manufactured especially for this purpose.

The end of the instrument is attached to a small tube which is inserted in the end of the teat. Care should be taken to sterilize the tube in boiling water or corrosive sublimate; also to wash the end of the teat, as there is great danger of doing more harm than good to the udder. After the tube is inserted in the teat the operator forces the air into the udder with the pump. Each quarter is inflated, and care should be taken not to distend the udder too much. In the treatment of milk fever and garget it is customary to place rubber bands around each teat to prevent the air from escaping too rapidly. For milk fever it sometimes requires a second injection, but if the bands are used one treatment is usually enough.

For garget the udder is not filled quite so full as for milk fever, and after the udder is inflated it is thoroughly massaged, especially the quarter affected with garget.

We have attended more than one farmers' institute where men were present who were very successful in their special lines and chock full of good ideas, but who through modesty or embarrassment when on their feet wouldn't volunteer a sentence. To elicit information from just such fellows as these there should be a concerted effort on the part of those in charge of the sessions by making a list of the bashful farmers and putting such questions to them as would bring out the desired information. Men of this type will answer questions without much embarrassment who would be scared stiff if they were to get on their feet and speak voluntarily.

THE ADVICE OF A FRIEND

Given to Those Who Need It.

San. Francisco, Cal.—"To anyone who is run down or who needs a good blood purifier, I want to recommend Vinol the great cod liver and iron tonic. I was run down, feeling badly and only weighed about 140 pounds. I took a course of Vinol—it purified my blood, gave me an appetite, and built me right up. Now I am well and strong, weigh 175 pounds, and in fact, never felt better in my life." John S. Charles, 3264 17th St., San Francisco, Cal. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

Vinol is a delicious combination of the health giving properties of the cod's liver, with the grease eliminated, and tonic added, blended in a mild medicinal wine.

If your blood is poor or sluggish, your appetite poor, your digestion weak or your vitality not up to the standard, or if you are suffering from chronic coughs, colds or bronchial troubles, try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. It could not do what all these people claim it did for them if it was not honest. People's Drug Store, C. Wm. Beales, proprietor, Gettysburg, Pa.
